To whoever had the god-given audacity to steal and gobble up my chicken stroganoff from the level 2 central library fridge - i'm going to curse your bloodline. I hope you break your mandible and it heals wrong so you look like that one guy from teen wolf.

Sincerely, a starving second-year

To who ever stole my true love out of the central library fridge last night, I hope that ravioli was worth my heartbreak.

I had not known her long, but from the moment I first laid eyes on her in the Woolworths prepaid food aisle, I knew our pairing would have rivalled the gods.

Perhaps that's why fate ripped us apart?
Perhaps we found each other too soon... in a sea of late night study snack, she will forever be the one that got away.

But for real tho, it was $12 and ya girl is poor
